

Trees during the four seasons

Most trees change throughout the year by growing new branches and leaves. Some even grow flowers and fruit! Later on in the year, the leaves change colour and drop. Using the tree trunk drawings, finish off the tree tops for each season.

How many different kinds of trees can you see in your local park or playground?
Which one is your favourite and why?