

Lots of children have been stuck inside for a long time and not able to see their friends. Write a message of friendship that you think Snail would give to children feeling lonely at home.

