

The Snail and the Whale travel all over the world in their story. Can you find somewhere new on a map for them to visit? Colour them in and draw the location you choose in the background of the picture.

